

Fire Related Product Recall Notice

Date issued: 4 July 2016

Arlec WLED15 Rechargeable Handheld Worklights

Arlec has recalled the model WLED 15 Rechargeable Handheld Worklight. The affected worklights were sold at Bunnings stores nationwide between January 2015 to June 2016 inclusive.

Problem

Some materials used in the Worklight do not comply with the flammability requirements of the relevant Australian/New Zealand standard.

If the product overheats there may be the potential for a fire or burn hazard.

Details

Model WLED15

See the products rating label for more information.

What to do

Immediately stop using your Worklight.

Return your Worklight to your nearest Bunnings store for a full refund.
